

3-Day Itinerary: Tracing the Legacy of the 1971 Liberation War

Day 1: Amritsar → Pul Kanjiri → Husainiwala

- Morning: Amritsar
  - Begin your journey at Jallianwala Bagh to pay tribute to India's freedom fighters.
  - Visit the Partition Museum, which provides crucial context for understanding the conflicts that shaped the region.
  - Drive to Pul Kanjiri (approx. 1.5 hours).
- Afternoon: Pul Kanjiri
  - Explore this historic site, known for its strategic significance and its association with Maharaja Ranjit Singh.
  - Reflect on how such locations symbolized resilience during India's wars.
- Evening: Husainiwala
  - Proceed to Husainiwala (approx. 2 hours).
  - Visit the National Martyrs Memorial, where Bhagat Singh, Rajguru, and Sukhdev were cremated.
  - Witness the Husainiwala Border Retreat Ceremony, showcasing the spirit of national pride.
  - Stay overnight in Husainiwala or Ferozepur.

Day 2: Husainiwala → Fazilka

- Morning: Husainiwala
  - Learn about the 1971 Liberation War's western front and how Indian forces successfully reclaimed Husainiwala.
  - Pay tribute at the war memorials dedicated to soldiers who fought bravely in the 1971 war.
- Afternoon: Fazilka (approx. 3 hours)
  - Arrive at Fazilka and visit the Asafwala War Memorial, honoring the Punjab Regiment soldiers who defended the region during the war.
  - Learn about the strategic importance of Fazilka in the western theater of the 1971 conflict.
- Evening: Fazilka
  - Reflect on the sacrifices of the soldiers as you explore nearby areas that witnessed wartime activity.
  - Overnight stay in Fazilka.

Day 3: Fazilka → Dera Baba Nanak → Amritsar

- Morning: Fazilka to Dera Baba Nanak (approx. 4 hours)
  - Drive to Dera Baba Nanak, a town of spiritual significance and strategic importance.
  - Visit the Kartarpur Sahib Viewpoint, which symbolizes peace and reconciliation post-conflict.
- Afternoon: Return to Amritsar (approx. 1.5 hours)
  - Spend time in Amritsar, visiting any missed landmarks such as the Golden Temple or Wagah Border, to conclude your journey.