

1 Day Itinerary - Gadra Road

Morning

- Arrival at Gadra Road: Start your day early by arriving at Gadra Road, which is located about 120 km from Jaisalmer and close to the India-Pakistan border. It is known for its proximity to the border and its historical significance.
- Visit Gadra Road Railway Station: Begin your day by visiting the Gadra Road Railway Station, a key point on the railway line that connects Jaisalmer to Barmer. It's a quaint station and a good place to start understanding the region's history and its strategic importance.

Late Morning

- Explore the Border Area: Gadra Road is near the India-Pakistan border, and although direct access to the border is restricted, you can explore the surrounding areas. Learn about the history of the region and the significance of the border. You may also visit nearby border posts (if accessible).
- Local Village Life: Take a walk through the village of Gadra Road and explore the rural life of Rajasthan. The village is known for its traditional Rajasthani architecture, and you may come across local artisans and craftsmen.

Afternoon

- Lunch: Enjoy a traditional Rajasthani meal at a local guesthouse or restaurant. You can try local specialties like dal baati churma, gatte ki sabzi, and ker sangri.
- Visit Nearby Attractions: After lunch, take a short trip to Kuldhara Village, an abandoned village with an intriguing history and local legends. Alternatively, visit the Tanot Mata Temple, located about 100 km away, which holds historical significance related to the 1965 and 1971 wars.

Evening

- Desert Safari or Camel Ride: Head out for a short desert safari or camel ride in the Thar Desert. The desert is vast and peaceful, offering a unique opportunity to connect with nature.
- Sunset Viewing: Find a vantage point in the desert to enjoy the stunning sunset. The desert landscape at dusk is a breathtaking sight, with golden sands and vibrant colors in the sky.

Departure: After the sunset, head back to Jaisalmer or your next destination.
